DID I PLAGIARIZE?

Start:

Did the words or ideas come from a source (e.g., book, article, newspaper, or website)?

- NO
  - NOT PLAGIARISM.
    - If you are including your own ideas, conclusions, or analysis, it is not plagiarism.

- YES
  - Did you copy words directly from another source?
    - NO
      - Did you just change a few words from the original or just move words around?
    - YES
      - Did you put the copied words in quotation marks and include an in-text citation?
        - NO
          - NOT PLAGIARISM.
            - Be sure you have formatted your in-text citation correctly.
        - YES
          - PLAGIARISM.
            - This is copy/paste plagiarism. Content copied word-for-word from a source must be placed in quotation marks and include an in-text citation.

- YES
  - PLAGIARISM.
    - Only changing a few words is find-replace plagiarism. Instead, you need to properly paraphrase and cite the original author.

- NO
  - NOT PLAGIARISM.
    - If you have put the ideas into your own words with a proper paraphrase and included a citation, this is not plagiarism.
